Afternoons in Agen are all about exploration and discovery. We'll take you on exciting visits to various locations in the city. On Monday afternoon we'll do immersion tours in Agen where you'll experience firsthand the rich culture, history, and charm that Agen has to offer.

On Tuesday we'll explore French gastronomy and cooking with the help of local food places or shops (marchés, boulangeries, fromageries, charcuteries...). After the morning class we'll shop at a local farmer's market followed by COOKING and EATING TOGETHER (family style).

On Wednesday, we'll embark on a captivating journey to Bordeaux by train (one way ticket included). Our immersion class teacher, Daniel Kline Dubois, will serve as your tour guide, leading you through the remarkable sights and sounds of this world-renowned city.

As soon as we arrive at the train station in Bordeaux, we'll take the tramway to go to the historical center of the city to start our walking tour. We'll visit a very popular neighborhood of Bordeaux where Daniel will talk about history, architecture and famous landmarks.
